THE CELEBRATION OF DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY is a day on which Our Lord promised that the floodgates of His mercy would be opened to sinners. This day is a wonderful opportunity for the faithful to open themselves to God's abundant mercy. The message of Divine Mercy that God gave to mankind is as easy to remember as A-B-C. "Ask for God's mercy, be merciful to each other, and completely trust in God's mercy. God shared this message with us throughout human history, but we were not listening. In the 1930s, Our Lord appeared to a nun in Poland, "and he basically said, that's it. You, Saint Faustina, will prepare the world for my final coming."

"He first appears to her and says, I want you to paint an image ... it's the image with Jesus in the robe raising His right hand with the rays coming from the heart of the blood and the water. Then He told her, I want a feast ... on the Sunday after Easter," "And God said, 'this feast is to be about my mercy. The world has forgotten it. And He gave her five new channels of grace that we now call the Devotion of Divine Mercy.'" The Devotion consists of the following five parts: Feast of Divine Mercy, Image of Divine Mercy, Novena of Divine Mercy, Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and Hour of Divine Mercy.

People forget that we are forgiven of our sins in the confessional, but most likely, the punishment remains, and that punishment could be really rough. The Lord promises that on the Feast of Divine Mercy, if you go to confession and receive Holy Communion, you will be forgiven of your sins and all punishment for those sins is wiped away. "Never will your soul be cleaner than it is on that day, other than your original baptism."

SANCTITY OF LIFE

God repeatedly through His Word speaks to the tremendous value of children. They are His reward, His heritage, and His blessing. Not burdens. Not mistakes. Not consequences. They are the blessings of blessings, and if He wants to send them, we want to receive them.

COMPENDIUM OF THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

CHAPTER THREE—I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT PART ONE—PROFESSION OF FAITH

Mary, Mother of Christ, Mother of the Church

196. In what sense is the Blessed Virgin Mary the Mother of the Church?

The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Mother of the Church in the order of grace because she gave birth to Jesus, the Son of God, the Head of the body which is the Church. When he was dying on the cross Jesus gave his mother to his disciple with the words, "Behold, your mother" (John 19:27).
